

NWSEO Member Dan Clark Needs Medical Leave Donations You Can Help with the Voluntary Leave Transfer Program

(May 21, 2014) Dan J. Clark, a longtime member of NWSEO is in need of medical leave donations after suffering a work-related injury affecting his neck, back, and spine. Dan is a Facilities Engineering Tech in Portland, Oregon.

Dan is unable to return to work due to the injury and his workman's compensation is ending. He has used all of his annual and sick leave. He is facing medical retirement and is due to lose medical coverage soon. Donated leave time will help Dan make ends meet until all of the paperwork is approved.

NWSEO Members have always been generous with annual leave donations for co-workers in need. If you are interested in donating leave for Dan Clark, you may complete the 630A Form at this link:

http://www.opm.gov/Forms/pdf_fill/opm630a.pdf

Please make sure the form is signed by you and that Dan J. Clark is named as the recipient and then submit it to your ASA.

Here are a few facts about donated medical leave and the Voluntary Leave Transfer Program that you might find beneficial if you are considering donating leave or if you are in need of donated leave time:

OPM regulates that only annual leave may be donated. You cannot donate sick leave. Leave donors can specify a member of the Leave Donor Program whom they'd like to receive their donated leave time by completing form complete form OPM-630A .

Any leave that is not used is returned back to the donor.

A person does not have to wait until their leave is exhausted before applying to be a recipient of the Leave Transfer Program. They must present medical documentation showing they anticipate that they will be on unpaid status for at least 24 hours.

Before a person can accept any donated leave, they must complete the required paperwork, have it processed, and receive notification that they are accepted as a recipient of the Leave Transfer Program. It can take two weeks to process the paperwork, so applicants should apply as soon as they realize the condition is expected to exhaust their leave.

Department of Commerce leave rules come straight from OPM. There are no agency specific rules.
