

National Weather Service Employees Organization

A Message from NWSEO President Werner

(March 13, 2020) I recognize the impacts of the Coronavirus pandemic on our employees and their families. This event is evolving rapidly, and we appreciate the agility of our workforce to manage priorities during this time.

In response to the current pandemic, we are postponing the March Madness Membership Drive until further notice. While recruitment is the lifeline of our membership support, our members must focus on the health and safety of themselves and their families.

We have forwarded your concerns posted on the NWSEO Facebook page to NWS management. If there are further concerns, please continue to post your comments on the page and we'll continue to send the information forward.

We stand in solidarity for the safety of our workers. Our workers are the backbone of our mission. Thank you for your unwavering service in protecting lives and property and please keep safe.
