

No Changes to October NWSEO Convention - Yet

(June 8, 2020) At this time, there are no changes to our NWSEO Convention scheduled to be held October 12-13, 2020 at Caesar's Palace in Las Vegas. However, due to the existing COVID-19 Pandemic, there have been discussions to perhaps hold this year's convention virtually. NWSEO would like your input on this matter. Please select the link below to complete the survey at your earliest convenience. This survey will end June 20th.

We are continuing to monitor reopening activities in Las Vegas while also weighing the potential risks to our members and their families. Your safety is critical to our decision, which is why we are carefully weighing various options. If there is a decision to hold the convention virtually, there will be a Four Winds and Facebook announcement as soon as that decision is made. Again, at this time, there are no changes to the Las Vegas Convention.

We plan on a final decision on the convention venue by the mid July/early August timeframe. Thank you for your input and continued support of NWSEO.
